Dear friends,
Today I got some attention, my story will be told.
Today I am in a museum,
Today I am the museum.
If you come and visit me,
I can promise stories,
stories that will make you wonder,
stories that will make you smile.
If you come and visit me,
in the creative base
your mind will ponder and recompose the space

Dear friends,
I spent days, months, years sometimes lying in the Design Creative Base, dust was visiting me and I was losing my faith.
But I have a story to tell.
I was used, abused and often created,
I am the fruit of sleepless nights, ambitions and frustrations.
I am the success of a student
The hope of a professor.
I am sometimes the mean,
I was sometimes the aim.
I am every object here, who has something to say.
